

For more information about FSD's Internships, please click here.

For more information about our Cochabamba Site, please click here.

To Apply for an internship, please click here.

Organization Description	Internship Opportunities
CIOEC            CIOEC is an arm of the Organizaciones Económicas Campesinas Indígenas y Originarias, which contributes to the socio-economic development of the country and of its affiliated small producers, following an economic solidarity model with the primary goals of food security and self-sufficiency. CIOEC works with many local small producers to improve production, commercialization, and works with them on basic economic principles to improve the quality of their business and increase profits, thereby leading to a higher quality of life for these producers. CIOEC also works with producers on sustainable agriculture practices and aims to advocate the needs of these producers to the government (through promotion of various laws and awareness campaigns).	Marketing Intern: CIOEC seeks someone with a strong interest in the area of marketing. This intern would work with CIOEC surveying clients and creating marketing strategies that best fit their target market. This position requires that the intern have a basic understanding of marketing or business fundamentals. This position requires a lot of interaction with local business owners and institutions, so be prepared to walk. A high level of Spanish is required Advocacy Intern: This intern would work with CIOEC on their advocacy campaigns. They would evaluate the effectiveness of current strategies and help create new ones. This position requires that the intern understand basic advocacy strategies. They must be committed to working with local community members and have the patience to deal with frustrating government roadblocks. There will be travel involved. Agricultural Intern: This position is for interns who have extensive knowledge of agricultural concepts and practices. The intern could consult with local producers on how to improve production through improved technology or agricultural practices. This position requires significant travel to rural communities. Please be aware that many rural communities speak Quecha, creating an added challenge for those interested in this position. In general, a high level of Spanish is required. Finance Intern: This intern would focus their project and skills on improving business and finance practices both at CIOEC and with local producers. This intern would evaluate current finance methods used and look for more effective and efficient ways to implement them, or implement new methods all together. This position requires knowledge of accounting or basic finance principles. An advanced level of Spanish is required.
ALERTA VERDE            The Foundation "Green Alert" aims to improve the quality of life for the well-being of present and future generations through environmental projects of awareness, education, research and development in urban and rural areas. Among the projects to be developed, are urban horticulture, organic and sustainable agriculture, waste	Educational Outreach Intern: This intern will work with Alerta Verde to make sure that their educational programming goes smoothly. This position requires daily travel to local schools, some quite far away. Educational sessions are also frequently held in Alerta Verde's example garden. The intern's job is to work with the organization to evaluate, improve, and/or expand their educational outreach. Though knowledge of community gardens and environment basics will be very useful, they are not necessary to apply for this position. It is highly recommended that if you do not have an environmental background, that you do extensive research before arrival. An intermediate-advanced level of Spanish is required.

management, improvement of public health to improve the environment, food safety, mitigating the effects of climate change, recovery of environmental habits of our ancestors, and in general raising environmental awareness.	Educational Programming Intern: This position is similar to the Educational Outreach Intern, but will focus more on creating new workshops and improving existing ones. This intern will focus on didactic materials that can be used by the organization and distributed, methods for advertising and conducting workshops, creating new connections for workshop opportunities and working on community engagement strategies. Travel to local surrounding communities will be required. Though knowledge of community gardens and environment basics will be very useful, they are not necessary to apply for this position. It is highly recommended that if you do not have an environmental background, that you do extensive research before arrival. An intermediate-advanced level of Spanish is required.
ITEI          ITEI is a multidisciplinary center based in La Paz, with the goal to rehabilitate those affected by torture and state violence. ITEI is committed to building a society respectful of human dignity and with a historical memory that acknowledges the maltreatment of those without voices in Bolivia. ITEI is an organization that accompanies those affected by torture and state violence in a comprehensive rehabilitation process, extending this work to the family and community of those affected. Through training and research, and raising of a collective consciousness, ITEI works to report the truth in the aftermath of state violence. Six years ago ITEI began an awareness-raising campaign for the eradication of torture, maintaining mechanisms for prevention and awareness through mass campaigns such as media interviews, workshops, seminars, and lectures. ITEI has recently begun to work with prisons and the families of prisoners to ensure that they are aware of their rights and options.	Special Events Intern: This intern will focus on events hosted by the organization. ITEI holds multiple large events throughout the year, with the largest being in June. This intern should be prepared to elaborate materials, organize logistics, and promote the event. The intern will work with Director to determine the best event planning event strategy based on the desires of the organization. Interns should have prior knowledge of or experience in event planning or management, advertising, and/or design. An intermediate level of Spanish is required. Prisoner Advocacy Intern: This intern will focus on advocacy for prisoners and their families. The intern will have the option of working directly in prisons (with Director supervision) or working with the families of prisoners. The goal is to ensure that prisoners and those that they are close to are aware of their rights. Activities could include taking testimonials, creating support groups, forming support networks, and developing a more expansive advocacy campaign. A high level of Spanish is required. Victims of Torture Advocacy Intern: This intern will work with former victims of torture to develop a plan to better advocate and educate the population about not only what these people have been through, but what torture is. This position requires a careful touch and a willingness to listen. Activities may include taking testimonies, creating advocacy campaigns, victim outreach, and creating support networks. A background in psychology is useful. An advanced level of Spanish is required.
VIVO EN POSITIVO          Vivo en Positivo exists to contribute to the overall health, generating	Research Intern: This intern will focus on working with Vivo en Positivo to develop a research project that can be used by the organization in the future. Research will most likely be focused on topics having to do with HIV/AIDS risks, contraction, and management. The research intern will

empowerment of girls, boys, women and men with HIV or AIDS, promoting the defense of human rights and raising awareness to the community with a comprehensive approach to HIV and AIDS, in Cochabamba with regional and national projection. Vivo en Positivo works with personas with HIV; sex workers; the gay, bisexual, trans, and transvestite population.	work in the Vivo office, but will most likely have to travel to local communities/institutions quite frequently. The intern may be expected to write an academic article and/or create materials presenting their findings. Someone with knowledge of basic research techniques and statistics is preferred. Advanced level of Spanish required. Advocacy Intern: The intern will focus on advocacy for people with HIV/AIDS, sex workers, and the promotion of equality for all lifestyles. This could include working on or creating awareness campaigns, collaborating with other NGOs, or working on petitions to the government. This position requires a dynamic person that is willing to work with many different actors at once. This position will require the intern to work in the office, but also to spend a great deal of time outside working with and collaborating with other institutions and people. Intern must be independent and self-motivated. An intermediate-advanced level of Spanish is required. Educational Programming Intern: This intern will work on the educational component of what Vivo en Positivo does. This means evaluating, improving, and adding to the educational materials that exist. This may involve creating or hosting workshops, creating or expanding materials, or creating/improving methods of educational outreach to the community. The intern must become familiar with all aspects of Vivo en Positivo in order to best evaluate how to improve or expand their educational programming. Knowledge of basic design principles could be helpful, but is not required. Intermediate level of Spanish required.
LA CASA DE LOS NIÑOS The Casa de los Niños was established in 2008 and is essentially a small, self-contained community with 90 families. Its mission is to assist, support, and provide education to children with disadvantages who might otherwise be abandoned due to economic or family circumstance by providing support to their families through housing, job support, and a welcoming community, etc. Among the 90 families more than 15 of them have a father or a mother with HIV, and there are also 15 children with HIV. A large number of children in the community also deal with severe physical disabilities or chronic medical conditions. There is also a school within the community where about 140 attend, 90% of	Logistics Intern: This intern will work with the Casa to determine what areas are lagging in terms of organization and efficiency. The intern may be asked to create or update databases and/or organize campaigns to collect data to fill them. The intern may also look for ways to improve operating efficiency and organization (through technology, improved application of labor, organization and filing of information). Basic knowledge of CRM systems and programs such as Excel is required. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Education Intern: This intern will focus on working at the school inside Casa de los Niños. They will work with the teachers and director to determine where their skills may be best applied (classroom, programs, etc.). The school specializes in working with children with alternative learning styles and disabilities. The intern must have patience and be flexible with a constantly changing reality. Any skill sets that the intern can bring to the school will be useful. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Agricultural/Environmental Intern: The intern will work with the Casa on their community garden and other environmental concerns they are facing (contaminated water, pollution, recycling, etc). The community is always looking to improve/expand the garden, as it is used to feed the

them being from the community and 10% coming from outside. ? It is essentially a small, self-contained community that seeks to provide support in any number of ways to its community members. Possible project areas include: Health Education, job training and capacity building, HIV, women’s groups, health services, health and sanitation services, disability rights and accessibility.	children at the school, as well as consumed by the families themselves. Much of the water used by the Casa for agriculture and consumption is contaminated and handled improperly. Trash contaminates the grounds/garden. The intern could work on the improvement of the garden or on projects to improve other environmental concerns (or both). The intern should have previous knowledge of basic environmental principles and/or agricultural techniques. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Health/Community Outreach Intern: This intern will work on improving the health program at the Casa. There are a limited number of doctors, nurses, social workers, and psychologists working at the organization. The intern’s role is to assist them and help them realize projects they have been working on or would like to create. They may ask the intern to evaluate community needs and develop a project with them. Activities could include creating awareness campaigns, new methods for outreach, improved health protocols, etc. Depending on what the intern would like to work on, they should have corresponding knowledge. For example, if the intern would like to work closely with the nurses, knowledge of nursing would be extremely useful. Intermediate-Advanced level of Spanish required.
CADEPIA          CADEPIA ( La Camara de Pequeña Industria y Artesania) is a non-profit organization focused on promoting, consolidating, defending, and representing the interests of small businesses in the region by .providing them with technical support while searching for new markets to support those business’s growth and success. CADEPIA provides services to its associates through different programs, all dependent on their specific work area, such as: Food Services, Textiles, Furniture, Jewelry Work, Artesanias, Leather and Metalwork. CADEPIA currently works with over 1000 small producers.	Special Events Intern: The intern will assist CADEPIA with the many events and product fairs that they host. Their largest fair is in February/March; however they have events throughout the year. The intern should be prepared to elaborate materials, assist with logistics, plan event activities, and assist with event promotion. The intern should be aware that many events are hosted in the evening and on weekends, and must be willing to attend with a positive attitude. Previous experience with event planning, design, and/or advertising will be very useful. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Finance Intern: This intern will assist with the financial aspects that CADEPIA works with. The intern will work with the staff to either evaluate financial practices in the home office or evaluate the practices of the many small producers that CADEPIA works with. The goal is to evaluate what is already being done and implement more effective strategies to better manage allocation of resources. Intern must have knowledge of either basic financial principles or accounting. A familiarity with statistics is also very useful. Intermediate-advanced level of Spanish required. Research Intern: The intern will work with the CADEPIA staff to develop a research project that will allow CADEPIA to improve or expand services. This intern needs to be willing to be in communication with CADEPIA in advance of their internship (so that the intern may begin research upon arrival). Examples of research areas include: product research, market research, and community research. The student should have an advanced level of Spanish (not just in reading and writing, but in

	speaking as well). The language component is crucial to a research project, especially when taking place over a short period of time. All should have a background in research methodologies and basic development theory. They should also have a strong background in economics or business (marketing, etc.). Useful would be knowledge of statistics. Public Relations/Marketing Intern: The intern will work with the CADEPIA staff on evaluating and developing more effective strategies for public relations and marketing. This position requires a good deal of time outside the office getting to know the community and small producers. This will allow the intern to better create marketing and public relations strategies that will be most effective within the communities that CADEPIA works with. The intern must be open and willing to talk to many different types of people. Must be independent and willing to work alone at times. Advanced level of Spanish required.
PRO HABITAT          ProHabitat works in the southern zone of Cochabamba, where many of the communities began as open land to which those from the countryside immigrated and built makeshift homes. With time, as unemployed farmers and miners searched for opportunities closer to the city of Cochabamba, these tiny communities grew. However, these communities had very poorly built homes with little to no infrastructure, no community services, no access to water and no electricity. ProHabitat works to organize people who live in these communities so that they are empowered with the skills to bring necessary services to their community, construct community centers (libraries and parks), and have the basic tools for living a dignified life.	Political Advocacy Intern: Intern will collaborate with staff at Pro-Habitat on effective strategies and methods to promote laws and regulations that encourage community empowerment. The intern should be prepared for frustrating bureaucratic barriers and a slow moving process. The point is to make small, but useful, meaningful changes that help push these laws and regulations forward. Intern should have a background in political advocacy. Background knowledge of land and resource rights, comparative government, and/or urban planning would be very useful. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Community Organization/Outreach Intern: The intern will work with Pro-Habitat to evaluate and assess how to better communication and organization in the communities that they work with. Activities could include community organizing, awareness campaigns, and realization of small-scale projects. The intern must be prepared to travel to rural areas on a regular basis. Many community meetings take place on weekends. The intern must be flexible with their schedule and willing to adjust it based on the organization's needs. Intern must be open to speaking with many people and have the ability to collaborate with a diverse set of personalities. Must be independent and willing to travel/work alone at times. Advanced level of Spanish required.

Instituto para el Desarrollo Humano (IDH)

IDH is an organization that works to develop social and preventative medicine while promoting gender equity and basic human rights for everyone. The SIDAcción program strives to slow the rate of HIV transmission by distributing both basic information on HIV and AIDS and information on the universal values of solidarity, equity, responsibility and respect. IDH also works on topics such as intra-familiar violence, drug-use, and mental health issues.

Media and Outreach Intern: The intern will collaborate with staff to create new media and outreach campaigns on various topics. Types of outreach could include: videos, paper media, web design, etc. The position requires a good deal of time outside the office, getting to know the communities IDH works with, in order to make more effective outreach campaigns. The intern will be expected to read, watch, and listen to previous campaigns in order to evaluate and assess them, so that they can be improved upon. The intern should be creatively inclined. Knowledge of design, web design, etc. would be extremely useful. Intermediate level of Spanish required.

Educational Programming Intern: This intern will work with staff to evaluate and better the educational programming that IDH provides. IDH provides workshops and classes on various topics to many local schools and organizations. The intern should look for ways to improve or add-on to these educational programs. A background in basic education theory would be useful. Background in public health topics would also be useful. Intermediate knowledge of Spanish required.

Special Events Intern: IDH hosts various events throughout the year, with the largest being ExpoSIDA in August. The intern will be responsible for assisting IDH staff with logistics, promotion, and overall planning of such events. A background in event planning, management, and/or public relations would be extremely useful. Intermediate level of Spanish required.

Research Intern: IDH is involved with many large scale research projects. The intern would be a part of these projects; participating in and conducting community surveys, focus groups, and data compilation. The exact research project topic would need to be determined based on the time of arrival of the intern. Please contact FSD for more information. Advanced level of Spanish required.

foundation for sustainable development

For more information about FSD's Internships, please click here.

For more information about our Cochabamba Site, please click here.

To Apply for an internship, please click here.

GAIA PACHA          Gaia Pacha is a non-profit organization that believes in the life philosophy that people are capable and obligated to care for fragile interaction between human and the environment. Gaia Pacha works with the environment with the goal of creating and implementing methods that are technical and scientific that promote changes in behavior for the creation and reconstruction of the human consciousness in relation to the environment, without leaving behind the realities of Bolivia.	Research Intern: Intern will collaborate with Gaia Pacha to create a research project that will help Gaia Pacha to better serve the communities that they work with. The intern must be willing to be in communication with Gaia Pacha prior to the start of the internship (so that they may begin research upon arrival). Intern may be expected to write an academic article, create a presentation, or create another type of media platform to display the results of their investigation. Advanced level of Spanish required. Zoology Intern: Intern will work with Gaia Pacha staff and volunteers on the topic of wild animals. Many wild animals suffer in Bolivia due to abuse and lack of awareness of their plight. Activities may include: awareness campaigns, elaboration of materials, or improvement of facilities for wild animals. Intern must have a passion for animals and for the environment. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Agriculture Intern: Intern will focus on agricultural topics that Gaia Pacha works with. This may involve working in local communities and observing the damage of climate on crops, allowing Gaia Pacha to compare and contrast the results. The position may also include activities and workshops for improved agricultural techniques (environmentally friendly). Intermediate level of Spanish required. Environment Intern: Intern will focus on general environment topics. Topics could range from recycling to air pollution, depending on the needs of Gaia Pacha and the interests of the intern. Intermediate level of Spanish required.
ALDEAS SOS          Aldeas Infantiles SOS is an international organization which offers a family to children who no longer have one, while also teaching them the necessary skills to be able to support themselves and be successful in their lives. The Tiquipaya (area right outside Cochabamba) Aldeas Infantiles location is especially focused on educating these children in productive trades. The goal of Aldeas Infantiles SOS is to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Give children a healthy</li> </ul>	Educational Programming Intern: The intern will work with staff on improving educational programming and workshops. The intern will be expected to observe and evaluate current educational practices and lesson topics. From there they may collaborate with staff on strategies to improve upon and create new programming. ALDEAS not only teaches in the classroom, but gives many workshops to families and local community members. Intern must be willing to travel to rural areas. Must be independent and willing to travel/work alone at times. Advanced level of Spanish required. Childhood Development Intern: The intern will devote the majority of their time to being in the classroom with the children of ALDEAS. They will observe and evaluate current methods being used in the classroom and collaborate with ALDEAS to improve upon these. This position is similar to the Educational Programming Intern, but focuses much more on inside the

familial environment with a substitute mother, siblings and the warmth and security of a home and village. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Create a community environment where children can share values and culture, meet new friends and contribute to its development</li> </ul> Provide children with the tools to allow them to support themselves in the long run.	classroom and the development of the child. Position requires much time in the classroom, but less traveling overall. Knowledge of basic education theory and childhood development is a must. Intermediate level of Spanish required.
COLEGIO EL MOLINO El Molino is a school serving students in their initial, primary, and secondary levels. In addition to providing basic education in accordance with national education standards, El Molino aims to provide classes in various subjects and other activities which aid in the harmonious formation of its students. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Guide the integrative development of students' abilities by recognizing their potential and facilitating activities to elevate their self-esteem.</li> <li>• Prepare students to meet the demands of a changing country and world by providing education based in the values of justice, ethnic, and social equality among men and women, and the preservation of natural and cultural resources.</li> </ul> Prepare and encourage students to pursue advanced studies and continue their education.	Primary School Intern: Intern will work with primary school students (K-6). Intern will be in the classroom and will be expected to observe and evaluate current practices and activities. From there they will collaborate with school staff to improve upon educational programming or create new activities/programming. Interest in education is a must. Must be open to being alone with up to 15 students at times. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Secondary School Intern: Intern will work with secondary school students (7-12). Intern will be in the classroom and will be expected to observe and evaluate current practices and activities. From there they will collaborate with school staff to improve upon educational programming or create new activities/programming. Interest in education is a must. Must be open to being alone with up to 15 students at times. Intermediate level of Spanish required.

PERFORMING LIFE          Performing Life's mission is to help children and adolescents who are working and/or living on the streets of Bolivia, to improve their daily lives and create better futures through the arts. They empower youth by teaching performing arts as productive skills for avoiding drugs and delinquency while improving their economic well-being. Performing Life was founded by John Connell in 2005, when he was 18.	Circus Intern: For interns that have skills in the performing arts, particularly circus. Intern will work with children on teaching them skills and improving upon others. Intern will help prepare students for upcoming performances. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Educational Programming Intern: Intern will work on the education components of Performing Life. Beyond circus, Performing Life aims to provide children and families with other educational opportunities. Intern will be expected to observe and evaluate current offerings and from there will be able to improve upon or create new programming. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Outreach Intern: Intern will assist Performing Life with outreach to the communities that they serve. This may include going to rural communities and collecting information or giving surveys. Intern should collaborate with staff to create new strategies to reach out to the community. Intern will also be expected to help plan and prepare for special events hosted by Performing Life. Position does require travel and lots of walking in rural communities. Intermediate level of Spanish required.
CEDESOL          CEDESOL's goal is to enrich humanity and protect the environment by equipping people with social and technological tools that permit them to direct their own destinies. All of its activities center around three key concepts: alternative education, renewable energy and social justice. The organization has incorporated thousands of ecological cookers into the Bolivian and southern Peruvian cultures. Its vision of ecological cookers is the integrated use of efficient biomass, retained heat and solar cooking.	Publicity and Media Intern: Intern will collaborate with staff to create improved or new strategies to promote the organization. This may involve taking video, video editing, web design, or elaboration of paper media. Intern must be interested in media and be inclined toward creativity. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Community Outreach Intern: Intern will collaborate with staff to plan outings to rural regions and communities and elaborate plans to implement efficient stoves. This position requires a good deal of traveling and an organized mind. Intern must be flexible, especially with timing. Intern will be expected to help survey communities, talk with local authorities, help with petitions, as well as help with installation of stoves. Background with environment or engineering extremely useful. Advanced level of Spanish required.
MANO A MANO          Mano a Mano's mission is to improve the quality of life of the poor in Bolivia by providing health and social development support while respecting culture, religion, social class, and the environment found in its communities. The organization promotes the integration and shared	Development (fundraising) Intern: Intern will collaborate with staff in Cochabamba to improve upon and create new methods to secure funding and donations. This could include elaboration of materials, awareness campaigns, networking, etc. Intern must be willing to talk to diverse sets of people and must be willing to travel. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Educational Programming Intern: Intern will collaborate with staff to evaluate and improve upon or create new programming. Educational programming topics may include: Environment, health, or general education. The intern must be willing to travel to rural communities. Intern

responsibility of private and public institutions and the community to ensure the sustainability of each project. Mano a Mano supports communities by constructing health centers and educational infrastructure, and improving road conditions in rural areas. They also work to ensure a sustainable level of donations of medical supplies to health and social service institutions in marginalized areas of Bolivia. Complimentary to these activities, Mano a Mano has developed permanent education, health training and human development programs for staff and the communities it serves.	must be willing to speak with many people and must be very independent. Outreach Intern: Intern will collaborate with Mano a Mano to create /improve outreach and publicity to the communities that it serves. This could involve a paper media campaign, creating digital media, video editing, etc. The intern will evaluate and observe what is already being done and then collaborate with the organization to decide on next steps. Skills with video editing and digital media would be very useful. Intermediate level of Spanish required. Health Intern: Intern will focus on working with the health clinics supported by Mano a Mano. This placement is ideal for those with a background in nursing. For those looking to work with public health, there are opportunities for health campaigns within communities. Intern must be willing to spend majority of time in rural communities. Availability of this placement depends on the time of year, consult FSD for further information. Intermediate level of Spanish required.
Clinica Anzaldo La Clínica Jesus María is a small children’s health clinic in the rural town of Anzaldo. It serves the child population in the Municipality of Anzaldo, specifically addressing the issue of malnourishment. The Clinic makes routine visits to local communities to make health checkups; those children with health issues are then brought Anzaldo Hospital for a diagnostic and are then taken to the Jesus María Clínica where they are given the services need for recovery. The clínica also provides meals and serves as a shelter for those less fortunate children in the Anzaldo Municipality. In addition to serving the malnourished children, the clínica also provides workshops for mothers, in order to give them the nutritional tools to properly provide for their children.	Public Health Intern: Intern will work at the clinic elaborating/improving health initiatives within the community. This may include initiating health campaigns, hosting health fairs, or creating support/informational groups. The intern will live in the rural community of Anzaldo, about 2 hours outside of Cochabamba. Intern must be willing to live in a rural setting, with occasional visits into urban Cochabamba. Intern must have background in public health and be extremely independent. Advanced level of Spanish required. Nursing Intern: Intern will work at the clinic and assist with day to day nursing activities. Intern will also be expected to observe and evaluate current practices. Then they can collaborate with the clinic on possible improvements/additions that can be made to improve quality of care. Intern must be studying nursing. The intern will live in the rural community of Anzaldo, about 2 hours outside of Cochabamba. Intern must be willing to live in a rural setting, with occasional visits into urban Cochabamba. Intern must have background in public health and be extremely independent. Advanced level of Spanish required.

For more information about FSD’s Internships, please click here.
 For more information about our Cochabamba Site, please click here.
 To Apply for an internship, please click here.