

national funding opportunities for students

In our National Funding for Students database we have included fellowships, grants, and scholarships with broad eligibility parameters. Many other funding options for individuals exist, however many are only available to those in a specific demographic or particular field of study. Check out the databases in “Additional Resources” to find more specific funding options.

Also be sure to read through our National Fellowships, Grants, and Scholarships database.

award	eligibility	description
Bowman Travel Grants	All Students	The Bowman Travel Grant is awarded only to eligible students participating in a life study or volunteer programs in less traditional destinations.
Boren Scholarships &amp; Fellowships	All Students	Boren Scholarships allow U.S. undergraduate students to study less commonly taught languages in world regions critical to U.S. interests but underrepresented in study abroad. Boren Fellowships encourage U.S. graduate students to add an important international and language component to their education, and can include language study, research, and academic internships.
Clara Carter Higgins Scholarship	Undergraduate Students	The scholarships encourage young men and women who are interested in ecology and offer an opportunity to gain knowledge and experience beyond the regular course of study.
Davis-Putter Scholarship	All Students	The Davis-Putter Scholarship Fund provides grants to students actively working for peace and justice.
Explorers Club Exploration Fund Grants	All Students	Provides grants in support of exploration and field research for those who are just beginning their research careers.
Fulbright	Recent grads, post grad candidates, and developing professionals	The Fulbright Program funds ventures that aim to increase mutual understanding between the peoples of the United States and other countries, through the exchange of persons, knowledge, and skills.
Fund for International Service- Learning	All Students	The Fund distributes scholarships to those planning to participate in international service-learning programs.
Institute for Humane Studies Fellowships	All students	Awarded to students to help them take advantage of opportunities that can enhance their abilities and credentials to pursue careers that involve the communication of ideas.
J. W. Saxe Memorial Fund	All Students	The award is meant to enable the student to take a no-pay or low-pay job or internship during a summer or other term.
Laura W. Bush Traveling Fellowship	Students ages 18-25	The fellowship is intended for American college/university students who express an interest in international collaboration but as of yet had not been afforded many opportunities to travel abroad.
Marion Wright Edelman Scholarship	All Students (minority)	The Marion Wright Edelman Scholarship is open to minority students who demonstrate the ability to follow through with the projects that work toward a global community.
Projects for Peace	Undergraduate students	Davis Projects for Peace is an invitation to undergraduates at the American colleges and universities in the Davis United World College Scholars Program to design grassroots projects that they will implement during the summer.
Samuel Huntington Public Service Award	Graduating College Seniors	The Samuel Huntington Public Service Award provides a stipend for a graduating college senior to pursue one year of public service anywhere in the world.
Sara's Wish Scholarship Fund	All Female Students	Scholarships are awarded to young women committed to making the world a better place by fully participating in it
Thomas J. Watson Fellowship Program	Graduating Seniors	Fellowships go to graduating seniors of specified colleges and universities for independent study and travel.
William E. Simon Fellowship for Noble Purpose	Graduating College Seniors	The Simon Fellowship is awarded to those in pursuit of a goal that will strengthen civil society.